

Recap: n-m-v-x

Practice the letters you learned in the last lesson by tracing and then filling the lines with letters n, m, v, and x.

n n

m m

v v

x x

The Letter P

This lesson covers the rest of the alphabet, starting with the letter p. Follow the steps to learn how to write the letter p.

Climb
to the middle

Straight
line
down

Follow
the line
back up

Circle
back to the line

Connect
to next
letter

Practice writing the cursive letter p in a word. Try to make the circle touch the half-way line every time.

Try writing these words: pat, apple, pipe, page

The Letter R

The letter r is a tricky letter. It is important to be neat and even with the letter r.

Practice writing the letter r. It is important that the top of the r is defined. If it is too lumpy, it could look like a u or n.

Try writing these words: rat, race, arrive, write

The Letter S

The cursive letter s looks very different from a printed letter s. Follow the steps to write the letter s.

Climb
to the middle

Curving
line to bottom

Connect
to next
letter

Practice writing the cursive letter s. Try to make the curved lines even and the loop not too thin or too wide.

Try writing these words: see, mess, lesson, glass, same, sting

The Letter O

The letter o starts like the letter i - with a climb to the half-way line, but then rocks back around like the letter a. It is important to make the circle neat and even.

Like the letter w, the letter o ends on the half-way line. When combining letters, start the next letter from the half-way line. Trace the letter o combinations, remember to curve back in the second step.

Try writing these words: go, oat, book, pool, box, love

Follow the steps to make the letter y.

Climb
to the

Upsided
