How a Museum Works: Antiquarian to Accredited Exhibit Tour

Explore an exhibit that takes visitors behind the scenes to show how a museum works. Hear an insider's perspective on how the Litchfield Historical Society collects, interprets, and shares community history.

Highlight Tour of the Litchfield History Museum

Take a closer look at the objects and stories on display. Tailored to fit the interests of your group, this program is a great for both first time visitors and those looking to expand their knowledge of Litchfield History.

The Noblest Study: The Legacy of the Litchfield Law School

Discover what brought promising young men to study in Litchfield and how politics, society, and education came together at Tapping Reeve's law school, the first school of law in America.

At Home in History * OFF-SITE PROGRAM *

This OFF-SITE PROGRAM is specially designed to bring the museum to you. Hands-on and engaging, participants in this program share stories and compare their lives to the everyday lives of people living hundreds of years ago through objects, and demonstrations.

Litchfield by Bus

Explore beyond the center of town with a staff-led tour of Litchfield on your bus. Learn how geography, economics, and culture shaped Litchfield's boroughs and created communities with unique identities.

Litchfield on Foot

Step back in time on one of our popular staff-led walking tours.

- Homes and Histories: Architecture of Litchfield
Learn about the lives of past residents and how they are reflected in their architectural decisions.
- Heroes of the Revolution - Discover the ways people in town contributed during the Revolutionary War.
- Slavery Here: The Life of William Grimes
